Subject: Kenny vs Jamie Fierce proof

Hi Dana,

Since you've decided to back Kenny, I just thought I'd provide you with receipts. I don't know you, but from little I've watched about you, you seem to like receipts and proof, so I'll provide that.

Kenny has 2 different, and contradictory statements. The first being that he didn't know that I was vendetta, and only found out from seeing "Alpha Rizz" say it in tinys chat. Here's the proof from my emails with Kenny that show that he absolutely DID know and Vendetta was created because of misinformation spread by Chee to Kenny about me. Again, you can see in the email, I confronted Kenny about Chee saying that I was somehow trying to get close to Kenny for dick pics, and that Kenny agrees with me that that's fucked up, and he's starting to look at people differently.

My goal ever was to fuck with tiny. Nothing else. I'm a mod for Solomon and for Will. Both of them as well as others have spoken to me on the phone, and have known me for a year. I'm not some random internet troll trying to fuck with people for no reason. This is my community, and I'm trying to protect it.

Kenny knows the truth and for some reason continues to lie, threaten and try to intimidate me. He has done multiple live streams for hours on end about me. He's posted at least 5 community posts on his YouTube about me. I have done nothing wrong. I don't know what he's trying to accomplish here, because he knows the truth.

As for my "issue" with you and Jack, I was minding my own business chatting with people while Kenny was live. All of us know each other, so when new people come in it's suspicious. I saw this Jack parsons person, who I've never seen before, start asking questions about me in relation to you. Of course, someone barging into a chat and demanding to know who I am, when I have no idea who they are is going to raise flags. As a result of this odd behaviour, Jack was blocked.

Next thing I know everyone in the chat is saying hi to you but I can't see you. I asked if you were there and Kenny said yes. I said that's weird that you blocked me; especially after this strange person had come in asking about me. That raised another flag for me. I wasn't trying to say you couldn't block me or that I was offended by it, I was simply pointing out that it was all awfully suspicious to me.

Next thing I know someone is saying I'm some radiant sleep person on Reddit and that you have given that information to Kenny. I think we both know that I'm not that person. I don't know how anyone even started that rumour or why, but I do know there are several people who have had conversations with her and heard her voice, and can confirm it's not me. Enri can tell you it's not me; we just talked about it last night.

My "fake accounts" were made with one intention. To mess with tiny, and that's it. Nothing else. I wasn't trying to fool anyone except tiny and the chomo chat. I had assumed that Kenny had told people who I was because the very first time I went in there the most AJ life jacket said to me "I know who you are, don't worry hun". I have no way of contacting any of these people so I couldn't let anyone know on the DL; and I know the chomo chat pays attention to every single thing we say, so I couldn't reveal it in chat. I honestly thought people would figure it out on their own too, but the chomo chat figured it out first and started spreading "Jamie Fierce is Vendetta" in other peoples lives where they knew these people were. Someone sent me a screen from DOA's chat where a rando said that.

For some reason Kenny adopted this lie that he didn't know that already and that I had been lying and making all kinds of fake accounts for nefarious things. As you can see he knew all along. Nothing he says can be trusted. I don't know what his goal is; but he he needs to leave me the fuck alone. I suggest you get yourself far away from him as well too. Protect yourself.

I haven't slept yet, so my apologies if this message contains spelling and grammatical errors; I'm too exhausted to proofread.

Do with this information what you will. If you need anything else; feel free to reach out.

Take care and stay safe.

Of course you didn't know; I haven't told anyone in this community. It's not something I usually share or like to think about. I only told you cause we were kinda talking about when the law lets us down. I never felt in danger around you, but it just makes me a little more sensitive and cautious.

My new name coming back will be "Vendetta" so look out for me! Not sure if you're still live or not?

I think we both got some messed up info too... I wanted to clear up one thing cause I saw Chee saying something about me trying to get you to send me pics and I can assure you that I'm absolutely NOT looking for anyone's nudes 😭😭 people went right off the rocker that night!

I think I'm gonna have to make a new name if I wanna chill in your lives ever again 😂😂😭

I know that did surprise me. I'm keeping a better
